- > Our trainers are industry experienced professionals who can ensure measurable outcomes.
- > Minimal disruption to your operations as we understand day to day work pressures.
- > We engage directly with industry and implement training strategies that will respond to industry's specific needs using our in-house instructional design writers.
- > Hands on support for individuals as some staff need additional training assistance.

BSB30215 CERTIFICATE III IN CUSTOMER ENGAGEMENT

Course Overview

This program has been designed for employees working in customer facing or customer service roles, working under the supervision or guidance of a team leader. It delivers highly contextualised knowledge and skills, specific to the customers, product and environment in which the participants work and encounter. It covers topics such as customer service, product knowledge, selling, continuous improvement, technology and teamwork and other fundamentals.

Delivery and Assessment Methods

Delivery is a combination of group workshops and one-on-one sessions. Group workshops ensure the theory is well understood and then the knowledge and skills are practised in the one-on-one coaching sessions. Assessment tasks typically include on-the-job observation and questioning, in-class activities and workplace based projects.

Entry Requirements

Participants for this course must be working in a frontline customer service role. Participants also require adequate levels of English language, literacy and numeracy skills.

Duration

This program is typically delivered over a 12 month period; however, this will vary according to client needs and will be negotiated during the consultation process.

Pre-training Review

Prior to the commencement of training, a pre-training review will be undertaken to ascertain the participant's current levels of language, literacy & numeracy (LL&N), eligibility for skills recognition/recognition of prior learning and if any specific support needs are required.

Mentor Induction and Engagement

Spectra Training believes that it is very important to have effective workplace mentors from your business engaged in this learning. This ensures that the knowledge and skills are reinforced throughout the program and that the participant progresses through and completes the course. Workplace mentors are comprehensively inducted into the program so their roles and responsibilities are well understood.

Pathway / Careers

Successful completion of this program will lead to careers in customer service roles, and the ability to confidently perform their role with more autonomy and make decisions with regard to serving customers, selling products and services, completing operational and administrative tasks and generally representing the organisation.

Further study can be undertaken in the Certificate IV in Customer Engagement (BSB40315).

Access and Equity

Spectra Training is committed to ensuring people with special needs have equal opportunity and access to its courses. Spectra Training is committed to identifying and supporting the learning needs of each individual and encourages people of all abilities to apply to undertake learning.
